Kling Memorial Library | Summer Reading 2018

Calkins Nature Center

Calkins Nature Center, in Hardin County, contains a Native American and Natural History Museum that tells the story of the county's ecological and cultural history. The museum is home to one of central Iowa's largest collections of Native American artifacts dating back to the earliest inhabitants of North America. Join us at the library on Wednesday July 11th, at 11:00 AM to see and hear all about Iowa's earliest known history!

STEM Activities with Grundy County Extension

Our final STEM activity with the Extension Office will be Monday, July 9th at 11:00AM. Emily will be here to teach kids K-6th Grade all about scientific investigation.

Friday Dance Days

Our final Friday Dance Day will be July 6th at 11:00AM for students of all ages. Kids will learn have the opportunity to learn how to dance to the Gummy Bear song. We will also review the other dances we have learned throughout the Summer Reading Program, so if you missed any of the previous Dance Days it's not too late to learn them.

Summer Reading Finale

Let's Rock the Library one last time! All Summer Reading Program participants are invited to join us at the Library Friday, July 13th at 11:00AM for our Summer Reading Finale! We'll be dancing in the street along with having other fun activities during our Dance Party. The Kiwanis will be here serving a picnic lunch including hotdogs, chips, and water. We will also announce the winners of our Grand Prize Drawings!

Movie Tuesday

Each Tuesday afternoon, July 17th through July 31st from 12:00 - 2:00PM, beat the summer heat at the library and join us for a feature film. We will show a family friendly movie along with providing snacks and drinks. For movie details please call the library at 825-3607. *This is a change from June's Newsletter which listed the movies on Monday. That time conflicted with our regularly scheduled Virtual Reality time.
